Roll Up, Roll up for a rollercoaster comedy

Assumed identities, breakneck pace and hilarious mishaps, plus the tension and plot reversals of a thriller, give the Spencers a Spanish holiday they will never forget. Has-been actor Howard arrives with a young actress for a naughty break at the same villa, which is then invaded by two strange characters searching for a lost holdall. Can things get worse? You bet they can!

Not long now till show time. But there's work still to be done during production week.

We'll move scenery, lights and costumes into the Digby Hall Friday evening 12 April.

On Saturday 13 April we will need set builders from 10:00 am onwards. If anyone has talents specific to wallpaper lining that would be much appreciated from 11:00 am onwards. It is a relatively simple set, but some carpentry and stretching canvas skills most welcome.

So, put the dates and times in your diary now. Any time you can spare will be appreciated.

We're also on the hunt for a suitable piece of furniture which could comfortably contain a holdall size 12" x 14" x 26".

See and enjoy our 'Heatstroke' trailer on our website: www.aps-sherborne.co.uk

And finally, of course, do come along to 'Heatstroke' - and spread the word. Tell all your friends to come as well.

Do come along to the After Show party on Saturday 20th. It's a celebration of all our time, energy and hard work in putting on yet another successful APS production. Don't miss it!

What's On

A selection of what's on around and about

On in the Octagon,
Yeovil at 7.30 pm Fri
5 to Sat 6 April is

Neville's Island, a rollicking survivalist farce by Tim (Calendar Girls) Firth.

When four white-collared businessmen undertake a team-building exercise, little can they foresee the disaster that will capsize their boat and deliver them to an uncharted island. Stripped of luxuries and creature comforts, these hapless businessmen must quickly learn to fend for themselves, while constantly bemoaning the absence of a swimming pool; a soft, warm bed; and a hot plate of Yorkshire pudding.

FROM THE PEOPLE WHO BROUGHT YOU 'WARHORSE'

A MIDSUMMER NIGHT'S DREAM

In association with Handspring Puppet Company

Co-commissioned by Spoleto Festival USA

Shakespeare's inexhaustible A Midsummer Night's Dream. It interweaves the lives of lovers, actors, friends, foes and fairies. It is about love, transformation, survival and song, where a belief in the mystical presence of fairies isn't mere superstition.

It is a world that, thanks to the magic of Handspring, all objects are granted the right to life.

It's on now until Saturday 4 May. Times: 7.30 pm, Matinees Thursday and Saturday 2.30 pm. All preview tickets £10 only till Wednesday 6 March. Box Office: 0117 987 7877 or book online at www.bristololdvic.org.uk

BILLY LIAR ON AT THE SWAN

In the fictional industrial Northern town of Stradhoughton in 1960, Billy Fisher, a working class lad, lives with his parents and grandmother. As Billy's job at the undertakers becomes increasingly boring, his lies become increasingly outrageous, which starts to get him into serious trouble. Full of down to earth characters and touching moments, Keith Waterhouse's adaptation of his own novel remains a modern classic.

At The Swan at 7.45 pm from Monday 20 to Saturday 25 May. Tickets on sale Monday 29 April.

Smugglers, shipwrecks, a haunted crypt, hidden treasure, vengeance and enduring love are the ingredients of Moonfleet, brought to life in Bristol Old Vic Theatre School's latest West Country touring production. Set on the Dorset coast in the village on Moonfleet, orphan John Trenchard is captivated by the story of the ghostly Blackbeard and his lost treasure. His search leads him to high adventure with smugglers, the revenue men, and eventually to love.

Sat 18 May: at Tacchi-Morris, Taunton 7.30 pm
Wed 19 June: Digby Hall, Sherborne at 7.30 pm
Sun 30 June: The Exchange, Sturminster Newton at 7.30 pm.

This House NT Live at cineworld Yeovil

A bitingly funny insight into the cutthroat mayhem of Westminster politics during the hung parliament of 1974. It's February 1974. Ted Heath's Conservative government has been ousted. But only just. In the hung parliament, Labour manages to form a minority government by sending its whips out wheeling and dealing with the Liberals, Scottish Nationalists and Northern Irish politicians. But this fragile alliance lasts only until October, when another election is called. This time Labour win with a tiny majority of just three. Now things get tougher as old cross-Party agreements break down and even sick and dying MPs are wheeled into the chamber to cast their votes! James Graham's acclaimed new play whisks us back to the days of the UK's previous hung parliament, when politics got really dirty in the battle for power.

Showing on Thursday 16 May at 6.30 pm Call 0871 200 2000 or Google Cineworld Yeovil. Save 10% booking online, plus no booking fees.
