WHAT'S ON

A selection of what's on around and about

'BEDROOM FARCE' AT THE SWAN 14 TO 19 JULY AT 7.45 PM

Ernest and Delia go out to dinner to celebrate their wedding anniversary. When this is a failure they return home and prepare to celebrate with pilchards on toast in bed. Super!!

Malcolm and Kate are preparing a house warming party; Nick and Jan have been invited to this but Nick has hurt his back and prepares to rest quietly in bed - Shame!

All three preparations are doomed, however, to disaster by the marital problems of Trevor (son of Ernest and Delia) and his wife Susannah, who descend on each couple in turn leaving chaos in their wake, finally taking over the bedroom (and bed) of the long suffering Malcolm and Kate.

KAFKA'S DICK THEATRE ROYAL BATH 9 - 26 JULY

Insurance man Sydney and his wife Linda are leading perfectly ordinary lives in 1980s suburban Leeds when the esteemed (and long-dead) author Franz Kafka suddenly pitches up. With the great writer is his (also long-dead) friend Max Brod, he who ignored Kafka's dying wish that all his work should be burned and, as a result, made him one of the best-known writers of the 20th century. Things get even stranger when Kafka's father, Hermann, arrives and threatens to reveal some very personal details about his son, details that Kafka would prefer kept private.

This fizzy concoction takes the classic ingredients of romantic comedy, love, humour, coincidence and fantasy and serves them up with a surprisingly touching twist... Strawberries in January

This is a biting heartwarming comedy about four romantically challenged singletons who stumble through contemporary Montréal in search of love.

Cygnets Theatre, Exeter: see Diary dates for details.

AWARD-WINNING SKYLIGHT

'Skylight', David Hare's biting and award-winning play will be performed as National Theatre Live 7 pm Cineworld Yeovil on Thursday 17 July.

On a bitterly cold London evening, schoolteacher Kyra Hollis (Carey Mulligan) receives an unexpected visit from her former lover, Tom Sergeant (Bill Nighy), a successful and charismatic restaurateur whose wife has recently died.

As the evening progresses, the two attempt to rekindle their once passionate relationship only to find themselves locked in a dangerous battle of opposing ideologies and mutual desires.

in a fictionalised totalitarian state, Katurian Katurian writes stories that both captivate and horrify in equal measures. When these works of dark fantasy begin to become hideous reality Katurian is hauled in by two sardonic secret policemen who resort to increasingly absurd methods of interrogation to uncover the truth. Real life is not as black and white, good and bad as it is in fairy tales.

The Pillowman is on at 7.45 pm Fri 8 and Sat 9 August in the Merlin Theatre, Frome.
