

APS NEWSLETTER DECEMBER 2006

Welcome to this Newsletter which should keep you informed about events etc up to Christmas and the New Year.

Well done to Gilly Manns and all those involved with 'Off the Hook' which was well received by audiences last week.

Key dates for your Diary

All events are in the Clubroom unless otherwise stated.

Tuesday 5th & Wednesday 6th December: 7.30pm Auditions for Habeas Corpus

Saturday 16th December: 7.30pm Christmas Party Buffet at The Cider House, Compton Park by kind permission of Adrian and Miyoko Thorpe. Please remember to bring a knife, fork spoon, plate and bowl for your own use. You will also need to bring a GLASS otherwise you will receive your drink(s) in a disposable plastic glass. There will be a charge of £3 per person (no concessions) to cover food costs and of the first drink – alcoholic or otherwise. If you wish to purchase and consume further drinks then normal clubroom prices will apply – namely: 70p wine, £1 lager, 50p soft drink. The themed approach adopted in previous years is being continued so this year you need to wear a hat or some form of headgear!

Monday 8th January: 7.30pm Quiz organized by David and Wendy Rae

Tuesday 16th January: 7.30pm and explanatory meeting for those interested in taking part in the video being made by Edna Vyner. The video is entitled 'A Room with Two Views' and it is a short mystery video. If you are in any way interested then this meeting will explain all about what is being proposed.

Wednesday 24th January: 7.30pm Fish and Chip Supper & Quiz organized by David and Sylvia Smith

Tuesday 6th February: Play reading arranged by Joy Parkinson

Friday 16th February: 7 for 7.30 pm at the Bowls Club APS Annual Dinner. The venue has been changed from The Antelope because of the difficulties faced by members last year. The catering will be by Helen Furness Caterers of Cerne Abbas. The cost will be £20 per person.

Message from the Chair, Jakki Gregory: Jakki has discovered recently that someone has deposited a quantity of costumes/clothing in the costume store at the castle. She notes that they were dumped just inside the door and so caused a nuisance. However, she would like to point out, in the strongest terms possible, that there are to be no further dumpings of costumes or clothing destined to be costumes! So, NO MORE DUMPING OF CLOTHING UNDER ANY CIRCUMSTANCES - needless to say Jakki is fuming and the consequences for any member breaching the above will be severe.

Sorry to have to finish on a somewhat sour note but there are times when it has to be said as it is!

Merry Christmas to all members – enjoy the party on the 16th.
